T HAVE SEEN letters in respectable prints in California in which my name is placed before the public in an unwarhe soriety of those who use such phrases. To persons acquainted with the broken down newspaper hacks, who frequent the bar-rooms in this place in the " dull" season for "frems" to make a paragraph to send abroad in order to gath a notoriety which they would fail to acquire by laber, there is no necessity of explanation. To those who are not, I would say, the letters published are gross exaggerations. I know nothing of the quarrel mlinded to, I do not feel ashamed to boast myself a teacher of the "manly art of self detence" but never here have I misbehaved myself in a man ner which a gentleman refuses to recognize and in this explana nation I am proud to say I will be supported by the most re-Honolulu, Peb, 8th, 1856, 40-lt JAMES SULLIVAN.
